

Are you a small or medium business with less than 200 employees in Victoria or Tasmania? If so come along to one of our energy efficiency seminars presented by VACC OHSE Advisors.

How will this help me?

By signing up for one of these seminars you are already on the right track to manage energy efficiency in your business.

We will give you a breakdown on how your business compares to the rest of the industry, and where energy efficiency can be improved. We will also supply you with factsheets and guidelines to help you move forward with making the right energy efficiency choices in your business.

Not only that we will tell you about the VEET scheme and how your business can save when purchasing energy efficient products.

So take this opportunity now and learn ways you could improve your energy efficiency and reduce your electricity bills!

When is it?

Date	Tuesday, 15 April
Venue	Ballarat Golf Club
Address	1800 Sturt Street, Bendigo, Victoria 3355
